CAN NOT STEAL THE TOWN'S STREETS

Supreme Court of the United States
Lays Down the Law in Most Fa- mnus Litigation in Lewis County.

A special from Weston, W. Va., is of great importance to every town and city within the limits of the State of West Virginia as it is the opinion of the Supreme Court of the United States, which lays down the law that no lapse of time gives the right to a squatter to encroach upon any of the streets of a town or city. The article is as follows:
 "The last of the famous 'street cases' has been decided and the town has won once again. This time by the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Sallie Tierney vs. Town of Weston.
 News to this effect was received here by Attorney E. A. Brannon, who has fought these cases for several years through all the courts on behalf of the town. Thus ends the most famous litigation in the history of Lewis county, over which more than a dozen suits originated in the circuit court, several of which were carried to the Supreme Court of the State. Twice they have been appealed to the United States Circuit Court, and twice to the Supreme Court of the United States, all at a cost of thousands of dollars. The point in dispute was whether an abutting owner can seize a portion of the street or highway, hold the same for more than the statutory period of ten years and perfect his title by adverse possession. Adverse possession was the defense of the property owners, while the town contended that blocking or seizing the streets or highways was a nuisance, and that no amount of time would legitimize a nuisance. Under the last decision of the United States Supreme Court, the latter position was sustained."
